

Duchess beats a Thatcher any day

Enough of those rumors about Margaret Thatcher visiting Palm Beach Polo & Country Club. I mean, why have a former prime minister, when you can have the Duchess of York.

Powers

Sarah Ferguson will be the star at the Cartier International Polo Day to benefit the William Holden Wildlife Foundation Jan. 19. Don't look for her helicopter-flying hubby Prince Andrew to accompany her, but she will be in the solid company of her father, Maj. Ronald Ferguson. He'll be playing polo in a big England vs. United States match along with actress and animal lover Stefanie Powers.

No word, however, whether Fergie's mom, Susan Barrantes, will show. She's kept a low profile since the death two summers ago of her Argentine husband, Hector Barrantes, for whom she left the Major many years ago.

The Palm Beach Post

MONDAY, DECEMBER 9, 1991

2060374583